

FARMLAND IN WAYNE COUNTY

Agriculture provides work for many people and allows them to be relatively self-sufficient.

Open space and an agrarian lifestyle should prevail over increased population and tourism.

Farming and ranching has and will always play an important role in the economies of this county. Families depend upon the land and the ability to use it constructively.

